

RESPONSIVE SESSIONS VENICE ARCHITECTURE BIENNALE

Responsive Architecture Session
on the occasion of the 15th International Architecture Exhibition in Venice
07-09 OCTOBER 2016 // Artiglierie Arsenale

The symposium Responsive Architecture focuses on Design Build projects in response to various design agencies: 11 universities and institutions will meet at the Venice Architecture Biennale to discuss urban conditions, materials, local practices, aesthetics, workflows, participative and pedagogic strategies.

The symposium is organized by the RWTH Aachen University, the Peter Behrens School of Arts Dusseldorf, the Georgia Institute of Technology Atlanta and the AIT-ArchitekturSalon. The project is supported by the STO Foundation.
